Dear Frank,

I wanted to apologize for the briefness of my hello and goodby in the outer office the other day and to thank you for your nice note which was delivered to me just as I left the building.

It has been a whirlwind change of events for me. The speed with which I was moving through Evere was indicative of the way in which these recent events have changed life for me. Still, I look forward with great expectation to the challenges ahead and the opportunities to do something good for our country. I hope I can live up to your expectations and those of the President.

Pat joins me in sending our best to Dorie and you, and again, thanks for taking the time to catch me on my swing through the headquarters.

Yours,
